Proposed Creative Europe project – to which project are you looking for partners?

Sector or field	Culture/Cultural Heritage
Description or summary of the proposed project	Description of the project “Sophia – la Filosofia in festa” is a philosophical and cultural festival, totally free for all, that brings together some of the most important philosophers and protagonists of contemporary culture. Sophia is addressed to a large public of all ages and is based in Pietrasanta (Lucca, Italy), important cultural and artistic center, in particular in the municipal theatre, in Sant’Agostino’s cloister and across several different locations of the town. Inside Sophia’s circuit are the projects Sophia Junior! and Sophia Arte. Sophia Junior! is an educational project for primary schools that involves children and teachers: its aim is to easily introduce children to philosophy, through formation and activities, encouraging their thinking and creativity. The project consists in different moments: the vision of video classes and the reading of a philosophical comic book specially made for the pupils; a drawing session and the organization of an art exhibition exposing children’s works; Sophia Arte is the project dedicated to the encounter between philosophy and visual arts, with special attention to aesthetics and art exhibitions.

	During summer Sophia is hosted by Il Caffè della Versiliana, the most important Italian cultural saloon, with which it organizes conferences and lectures around interdisciplinary topics, especially philosophical. Throughout the course of the entire year Sophia's activities are promoted by its website (www.festivalsophia.it), which contains original cultural articles, news, updates. Through its YouTube channel (www.youtube.com/c/sophialafilosofiainfesta), which publishes all the festival's video contents, Sophia, with its section Pourparler, realizes interviews, lectures and podcasts. The aim of the festival is to promote philosophy, its protagonists, concepts, history and relevance as a concrete instrument and method of approach for life, work and study, encouraging the exchange between cultures, traditions, universities, research centers and schools, and favouring dialogue and values such as human rights, freedom, equality, gender parity, respect (above all respect for the environment), tolerance. Collaboration with the partners The wish of the festival is to build international relationships with cultural partners actively collaborating with them, especially: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1) involving international guests in Sophia's main meetings, lectures and conferences; involving book authors for international books and publishers' presentations and promotions; sharing contents and initiatives with the organizers; building hospitality circuits for the audience of European cultural festivals; reciprocally promoting contents, guests and activities; 2) sharing the project Sophia Junior! with European primary schools, exposing children's work in the art exhibition exposed in Pietrasanta; building relationships between European primary schools' children in a formative and creative context; 3) sharing Sophia Arte lectures' contents, directly involving European philosophical and art festival and European museums through videoconferences or live presence; 4) throughout the course of the entire year, using of Sophia's website and YouTube channel, realizing and sharing online lectures, interviews, presentations and podcasts.
