Proposed Creative Europe project – to which project are you looking for partners?

Sector or field	Literature and books
Description or summary of the proposed project	Our publishing house Schenk Verlag, has published several books in Germany as part of an international publishing collaboration, thus ensuring that the book is presented in German, one of the main languages preferred in the Creative Europe Literary Translation Project. In this case, a home country publishing house entered the project, while our publishing house, as a co-publisher partner managed the publication of the book in Germany as part of a collaboration agreement. The book appeared in a joint publication with a German ISBN. As the extra scoring criteria are expected to change during in this year and the publishing in German language will be more important as earlier. In case your publishing house considers a German edition possibility, we look forward to hearing from you.
